Where do we get this information from?

We get this information from:

- You
- Your parents/guardians, and other children’s parents/guardians
- Teachers and other staff
- People from other organisations, like doctors or the local authority for example

Why do we use this information?

We use this information for lots of reasons, including:

- To make sure that we give you a good education and to support you through this
- To make sure that we are able to address and support any educational, health or social needs you may have
- To make sure everyone is treated fairly and equally
- To keep you and everyone at the school safe and secure

- To deal with emergencies involving you
- To celebrate your achievements
- To provide reports and additional information to your parents/carers

Some of these things we have to do by law. Other things we do because we need to so that we can run the school.

Sometimes we need permission to use your information. This includes taking pictures or videos of you to be used on our website or in the newspaper. Before we do these things we will ask you or if necessary your parent/carer for permission.

Why do we use special category personal data?

We may need to use the information about you which is special (mentioned above) where there is a specific interest to do so for example health and social care purposes or to provide you with equal opportunities and treatment. We will also use this information where you have given us permission to do so.

There may also be circumstances where we need to use your information in relation to legal claims, or to protect your vital interests and where you are unable to provide your consent.

How long will we hold information in relation to our pupils?

We will hold information relating to you only for as long as necessary. How long we need to hold on to any information will depend on the type of information. Where you change school we will usually pass your information to your new school.

Who will we share pupil information with?

We may give information about you to:

- Other schools or educational institutions you may attend or require support from Local Authorities, to assist them in the exercise of their responsibilities in relation to education and training, youth support and safeguarding purposes
- The Department for Education and / or ESFA as required by the law
- Contractors, to enable them to provide an effective service to the school, such as school meal providers or external tutors
- Parents and guardians

Youth support services

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

A parent or guardian can object to any information in addition to their child's name, address and date of birth being passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once they reach the age 16.

Data is securely transferred to the youth support service via a secure web portal and is stored on a cloud service within the UK and held for a period of one year.

International Transfers outside the European Economic Area

Where we transfer personal data to a country or territory outside the European Economic Area, we will do so in accordance with data protection law, ensuring there are adequate safeguards in place. The transfer mechanisms include EU-US Privacy Shield and standard contractual clauses.

Keeping this information safe

It is very important that only people who need to use your information can see it. The school keeps your information safe by:

- Training and supporting our staff to work with data safely.
- Carefully selecting and managing the IT systems we use.
- Carefully choosing suppliers of services to the school.
- Appointing a Data Protection Officer
- Performing data protection impact assessments where appropriate
- Only disclosing information to others where it is lawful and necessary.
- Securely disposing of old IT devices and paper records.

Your rights in relation to your information

You can ask to see the information we hold about you. If you wish to do this you should contact your form tutor in the first instance.

You also have the right to:

- Object to what we are doing with your information
- Have inaccurate or incomplete information about you amended
- Ask us to stop doing certain things with your information in some cases
- Ask that decisions about you are not made using automatic systems
- Claim against the school in certain circumstances where you have suffered as a result of the school breaching your data protection rights
